Presenters:

James Chipp is a Correctional Administrator for the Utah Department of Corrections (UDC). James is currently assigned as the Contract Monitor Supervisor, responsible for the inspections and audits of the operations for 21 contracted county jails with UDC. He has 30 years of experience in the corrections field starting as a correctional officer and advancing through the ranks of Sergeant, Lieutenant, and retired as the Captain/Jail Commander in his 21 years of service at the Weber County Sheriff's Office. He has served as a Jail Inspector for the Utah Sheriffs' Association and the National Institute for Jail Operations. James is a certified instructor for the Utah POST Corrections Academy and has provided various training subjects at numerous sheriffs' offices throughout the Utah and the United States.

Mike Haley is Chief Criminal Deputy for the Washington Parish, Louisiana, Office of the Sheriff. He has a Ph.D. in Psychology and Counseling from the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and began his corrections career at Orleans Parish Prison. He then went on to hold several positions, including Director of Jail Services for the Alabama Sheriffs' Association, Commissioner of Corrections for the State of Alabama, Warden of a large urban jail and Vice-President of an inmate health care provider group. He serves as an expert defense witness in jail litigation, and is an instructor for the Utah Jail Commanders' Certification Academy and the National Institute for Jail Operations.
